Ashland, NH – As summer gives way to fall, the Ashland Fourth of July Committee is already gearing up for next year's 57th Annual Holiday celebration.

Some of the state's best fireworks can be viewed on the L.W. Packard Ball Field Monday, July 3rd, 2017 at dusk, with a rain date of Wednesday, July 5th.

As always, our annual parade is on July 4th at 10AM which is a Tuesday next year, rain or shine. More information about the parade's theme will be forthcoming, but people are encouraged to participate through floats, walking or riding in vehicles. The traditional Common Man Pancake Breakfast Fundraiser will start at 7AM, a perfect way to start Independence Day Celebrations!

The committee would like to thank all the local businesses that so generously supported the 2016 event through donations, advertising in the program, or with a banner on the ball field, volunteering their time and lending us their flatbed truck so we could have a stage on the field. We appreciate our sustaining donors and look forward to their participation again next year.

Special thanks to Jimmy Alba for bringing fresh, young music to the fireworks.
