

Summer Fun at the Library

Ashland Town Library Summer Reading Program: Build a Better World!

The Children's Summer Reading Program encourages school age children to read for fun during the summer. Children keep track of the books they have read in their reading log, then bring the completed log to the library to receive a prize and get their next reading log! Sign up and start your reading adventure today!

Story Time

Children will hear stories, have activities and do fun crafts! Sign up at the front desk to reserve your space. For children 5 and up.
