Following discussion of the reasons for waiver - motion to grant waiver of full site plan with the condition that recommendations from the fire chief be completed - Stewart; seconded; vote 5-0 in favor

Other Business

- Discussed contacting the owners of 6 Mill Street [Lane] and the tenant Craig Willey - this had been done and the mail was returned - contact will be made again
- Discussed compliance of sign ordinance
- Discussed email from NH DES asking if there had been consideration of including wellhead protection areas in the zoning ordinance; action was to reply that the board has considered it but are not going to do it at this time.
- Discussed Alex Ray's "junkyard" on Cedar Lane - not in the wellhead protection area

- Jennifer Ogden and Paul Branscombe will be reviewing the completed chapters of the Master Plan to see if anything is subject to costing over $25,000 and if so, they will bring that information to the CIP Committee
- Sue will be contacting LRPC to see if the draft chapters from the first public hearing have been updated

There will be no work session on September 26, 2012.

Chairman MacLeod called for any further business, there being none she declared the meeting adjourned at 8:00 PM.
